FAREWELL FROM THE CLASS OF 1985

We have come to the end of our school days
At our St. Henry High,
And we are gathered here today
To bid you all goodbye.
We've longed and waited for this day
It's here and we are glad,
But at the thought of parting
Our hearts are also sad.

Our teachers taught us tirelessly
And we have labored long.
Now we go out into the world
To see where we belong.
The future looks all rosy.
Each turn we'll take looks bright,
And we have truth and high ideals
To help us do what's right.

Down life's highway we will go
Each down his separate trail.
Some of us will find success
And some of us may fail.
We'll always have our memories
As months and years go by
Of teachers, classmates, and our friends
At our St. Henry High.

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Louis Huelsman

Sometimes it seems that we don't appreciate the fine jobs that the school board, superintendent, and principals do. The job of the school board is not easy. They have the responsibility of making many important decisions involving the school. One of these decisions is appointing a superintendent and principals to enforce the rules they make. At SHHS Superintendent, Mr. Louis Huelsman, does a very good job keeping the school system running smoothly. We also are fortunate to have three outstanding principals. In the elementary and at Burkettsville Mr. Dennis Brackman is in charge. Mr. Jim Dippold is the middle school principal. At the high school level Mr. Bob Condon holds the position of principal.

STAYING IN TUNE

The marching band this year had a very successful season. It all started at band camp during the summer. This prepared them for parades and many contests. With all the dedication and hard work from its members, it qualified for state contest in both marching and concert band.

The band also performed at many concerts throughout the school year and will perform at Cedar Point this summer. We would like to thank Miss Studebaker and the band for all their support at the football games and to congratulate them on their fine season.

The Office Education Association is a national, state, and local organization whose membership is made up of students who take vocational office education courses in high school.

The chapter was very successful this year, winning 18 places in regional competition. Five entries advanced to state competition, where Linda Broering won first place in pre-employed job manual. She went on to place first at the national level in Houston, Texas. The Houston National Conference was attended by 13 members accompanied by Mr. Thompson.

St. Henry OEA earned the National Banner Award, which is given to chapters with outstanding overall programs. The chapter also earned national recognition awards for activities concerning safety, membership, Special Olympics, and community service.

All of the seniors have earned the Ambassador Award for outstanding activity participation.

The volleyball team ended a successful season with a great record of 22-4. They had many awards. Among them were 3rd place in the Celina Tournament, 1st place in the New Knoxville Tournament, Sectional Tournament Champions, and District Champions. They also were named M.A.C. champions. The J.V. squad had an excellent season under new coach, Carolyn Stammen. They were undefeated.

Individual team honors were received by Teresa Link, Most Valuable; and Mary Braun, Most Improved.

All-M.A.C. Awards were given to Francee Miller, Teresa Link, and Sharon Stahl, with Lori Hemmelgarn and Renee Lange making honorable mention. District 8 All-Star recipients were Teresa Link, Francee Miller, and Sharon Stahl, with Lori Hemmelgarn receiving honorable mention. Teresa Link made 1st Team All-State, while Francee Miller and Sharon Stahl made honorable mention.

We would like to congratulate both volleyball teams and coaches on a fine season and the best of luck next season.

The 1984 Football Team could best be described as Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. After struggling through the first half of the campaign with a 1-3-1 record, everything seemed to fall into place and the Varsity ended up 5-4-1 overall, 3-2-1 in the M.A.C., which was good for a third place finish in the League. An excellent group of Seniors provided great leadership for the underclassmen that kept the team together through the good and bad times. The Football Team and Coaching Staff would like to thank the students, faculty and adults of the community for their great support during the 1984 season.

Co-Captains: Jaime Niekamp and Tom Reichert

Lisa are you going the right way?

The girl's basketball team accomplished a great deal this past season and ended up with a successful record of 15-4. Lori Hemmelgarn, Renee Lange, Lorine Steinbrunner, Cindy May, Francee Miller, and Jill Buschur were the "Super Six Seniors" who helped the girls through a tough and challenging season. The fine coaching ability was again lead by Marv Wourms and assistant coach John Bruns.

Throughout the year the girls managed to capture the Sectional Title and then went on to compete at Districts.

This year the MVP award went to Mary Braun. Mary also received honor in MAC and District 8. Most Improved award went to Lorine Steinbrunner, and Jill Buschur was honored as best defensive player. Jill, along with Lori Hemmelgarn also received honors in MAC and District 8.

Senior Captains: Kevin Koesters, Jeff Davis, and Jaime Niekamp.

Beginning the season the Redskins were predicted to do very little, but by the end of the season a lot of people's eyes had been opened.

The team which included only three seniors, Jeff Davis, Kevin Koesters, and Jaime Niekamp, placed second to Marion Local in the tough MAC. They won the sectional tournament in Lima hoping to meet with Marion again. The Redskins fell just short though, losing to Upper Sciota Valley in the semifinals and finishing with a 17-6 record.

Jeff Davis, a two-year starter, was voted MVP and received MAC first team, District 8 first team, Journal Herald first team, and Northwest District honorable mention honors. Kevin Koesters, who did a fine job at guard for the Redskins, was voted Most Improved Player, and received MAC first team honors. Jeff and Kevin were both selected to play in the District 8 All-Star Game. Craig Brackman, a Junior, was voted best defensive player.

The Redskins should be a strong contender to roll down the tournament trail next year with a lot of experience and help from a fine 17-3 Junior Varsity team.

Throughout the year the 1984-85 cheerleading squad did a super job keeping the school spirit alive. Not only did they show enthusiasm while cheering at the games, but they also added colorful signs to pep the fans. Robin Chapman served as captain to the Varsity Basketball; Tracey Eyink served as captain to JV Basketball; and Carolyn Broering was captain for Varsity Football. Pat Puthoff served as the girl's advisor.

BREAKING AWAY WITH OCCASIONS

"When You Close Your Eyes"

The 1984 Homecoming Activities were successful, yet changes were made from the previous year. It was the first year with no parade. The attendants were escorted forward during halftime instead of before the game. This enabled more people to see the exciting event and feel the anxiety. Everyone was wondering who would be the 1984 Queen.

The Senior attendants were Marilyn Bender, Janet Lange, and Deb Osterholt. The Masters of Ceremony, Renee Lange and Kristy Watercutter, were in charge of the presentation, and they also announced the new Queen, Marilyn Bender. She was crowned by the 1983 Homecoming Queen, Linda Goettemoeller.

The Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior class each chose a girl to represent them. The night ended great. St. Henry defeated New Bremen 21-0! It made our Homecoming a real reason to celebrate!

1983's Queen Linda Goettemoeller crowns Marilyn Bender, Queen of the 1984 Homecoming Festivities.

THE DANCE

"When You Close Your Eyes" was the theme of this year's Homecoming Dance. The dance was held in the high school gym on Saturday night, October 6. Beautiful decorations to fit the mood of the evening were provided by the Student Council.

Time seemed to race by as "disco Z" provided music. Everyone had a really good time dancing to the beat of some of their favorite tunes. During the dance, Queen Marilyn and her court were asked to come up on stage. Marilyn received her Royal Kiss from Jeff Davis and then the rest of the court got in on the fun, too, as they received kisses from their escorts.

The dance ended all too soon, and everyone left to go to other parties. Another Homecoming weekend had come and gone on a successful note. As we look back on the weekend all we have left are pictures, wilted flowers, and the remains of decorations to help us relive the special memories of one of the best times we had at SHHS.

Oh, GO FOR IT!!!

Watch out for that hand on your shoulder Judy!

Please, no applause!

It looks like Robin and Bob are having a good time.

Sweetheart Court at their best!!!

Sweetheart Dance was held on February 9th in the SHHS gym. Many couples and students showed up thanks to the hard work put forth by the Cheerleaders. The Cheerleaders sponsored the dance in order to make money for the Cheerleader fund. They did an excellent job decorating and organizing the dance. Later on during the dance, the King and his court were announced.

Dale Siefring provided the music for the dance. All the students had a good time at the dance and were a little disappointed it ended so fast.

JUNIORS DECORATE PROM

The Juniors this year did an excellent job decorating for the Junior-Senior Prom. "Make Believe" was the theme to which the Juniors decided to decorate. The gym looked like a ballroom with the beautiful crepe paper and unicorn decorations. With the help of the class advisors, Mr. Condon and Mr. Griesdorn, the Juniors worked hard from Wednesday to Saturday morning the week before the big dance. The Juniors really out did themselves, and the Seniors want to thank them for making a great memory.

Looks like you girls have a real job ahead of you!!

PROM QUEEN AND KING: Renee Lange and Ken Bornhorst

Queen, Renee Lange; King, Ken Bornhorst; prom attendance: Kristy Watercutter, Doug Bruns, Beth Bergman, Dan Evers, Cindy Everman, Jim Lefeld, Elaine Moorman, and Jaime Niekamp.

"Make Believe" was a perfect theme for Prom this year because it seemed hard to believe. For the Seniors it seemed "Make Believe" because it was their last school dance, and as for the Juniors, they finally got to see their hard work in decorating all put together.

Everyone was very excited that May 4, 1985 when the Junior class officers announced the Prom Court. King and Queen were Ken Bornhorst and Renee Lange. Other Prom attendants included: Cindy Everman, Kristy Watercutter, Beth Bergman, Elaine Moorman, Jim Lefeld, Jaime Niekamp, Dan Evers, and Doug Bruns.

Prom ended with everyone either going to the After-Prom or to other parties. If you attended the After-Prom you may have been one of the Senior recipients of the Senior Sucker Awards or you may have won of the many door prizes given away.

What We Do When

Peek-a-boo I see you!

Teresa what do you find so interesting?

Well Melissa, the truth is out now!

Buddies 'til the end.

Golly Guys!

There's Nothing To Do . . .

Honey I'm home!

Friend to friend . . . cheek to cheek.

See Mom, no cavities!

No, anything but a camera.

Teresa, your mom is calling.

Let's boogy!

You need more practice on that two man carry, girls.

One piece of gum at a time, Robin.

Nah, Nah.. Nah, Nah, Nah...

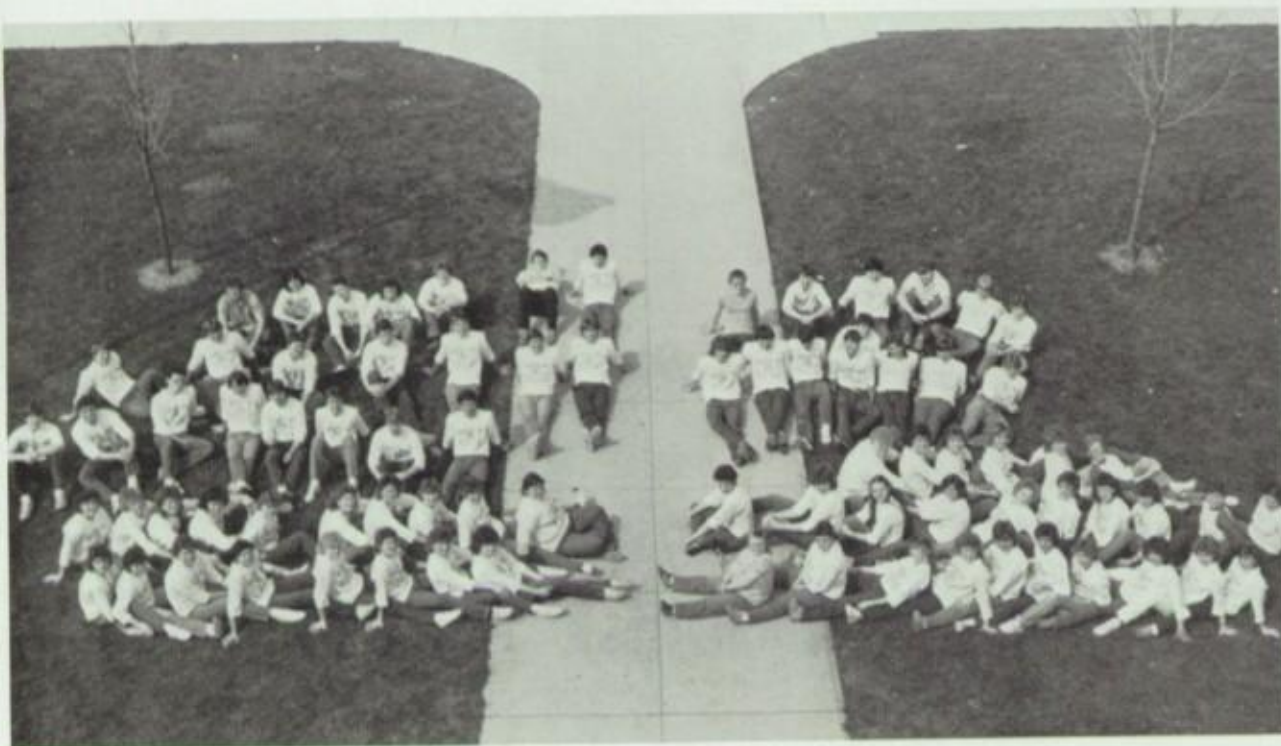

Trust me! Would I let you fall?

The innocence of youth, Lynn, Amy, and Jill.

Are you auditioning for Saturday Night Fever, Kevin?

1985 Superb Senior Class

That's Incredible . . .

. . . oh what big hands you have Donna.

Smell that fresh air . . .

Say Sailor!!!

Sorry Janet, I didn't mean to make you cry.

Someone better catch me!

Fly, be free!

Raise your arms if you feel dry now!

Robin locked in total solitude.

Sharon are you trying to tell us something?

Breakdance for us buddy.

Boy Teresa, you sure do meditate funny.

Jaime is through with American women . . . he goes for the German ones now.

That's the first time Nett has ever had her mouth closed.

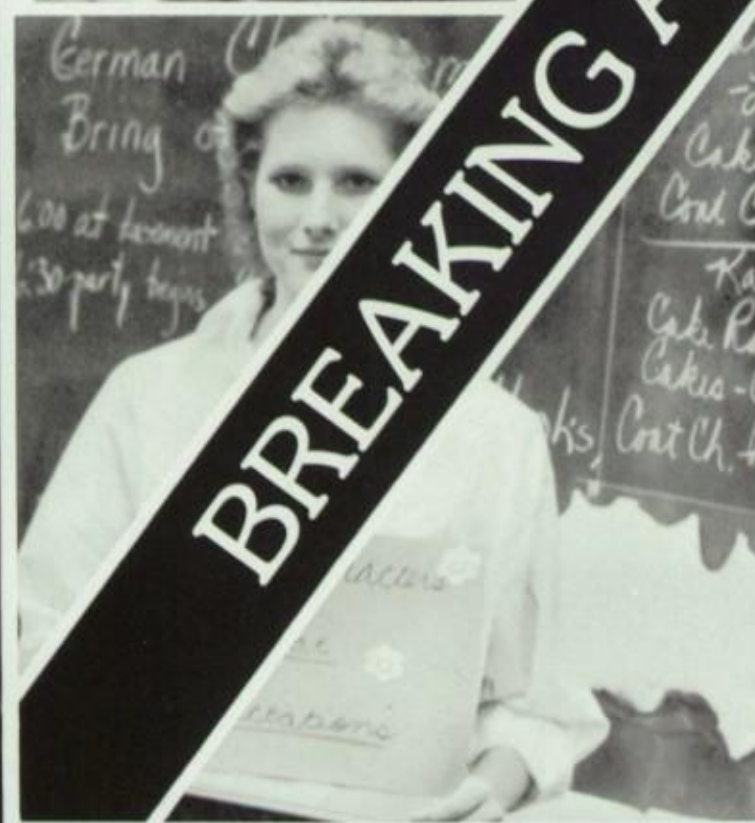

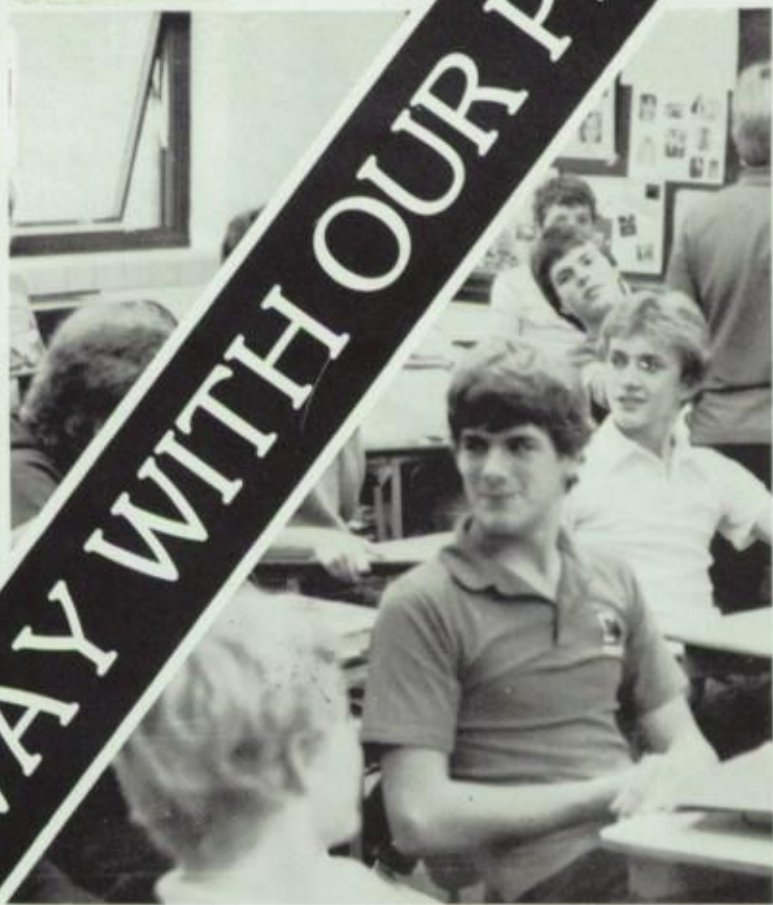

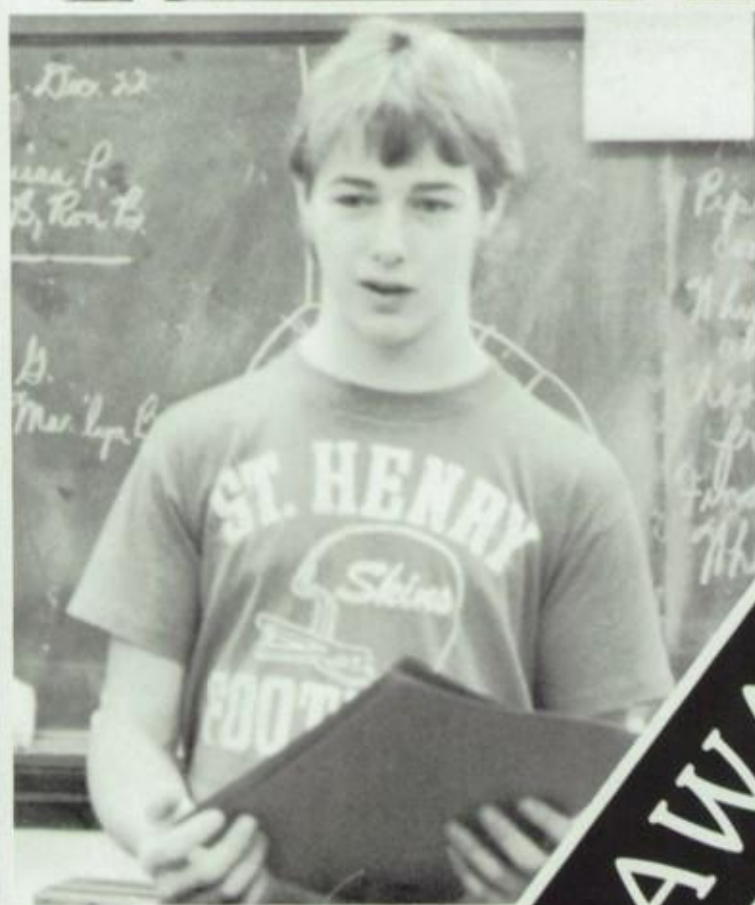

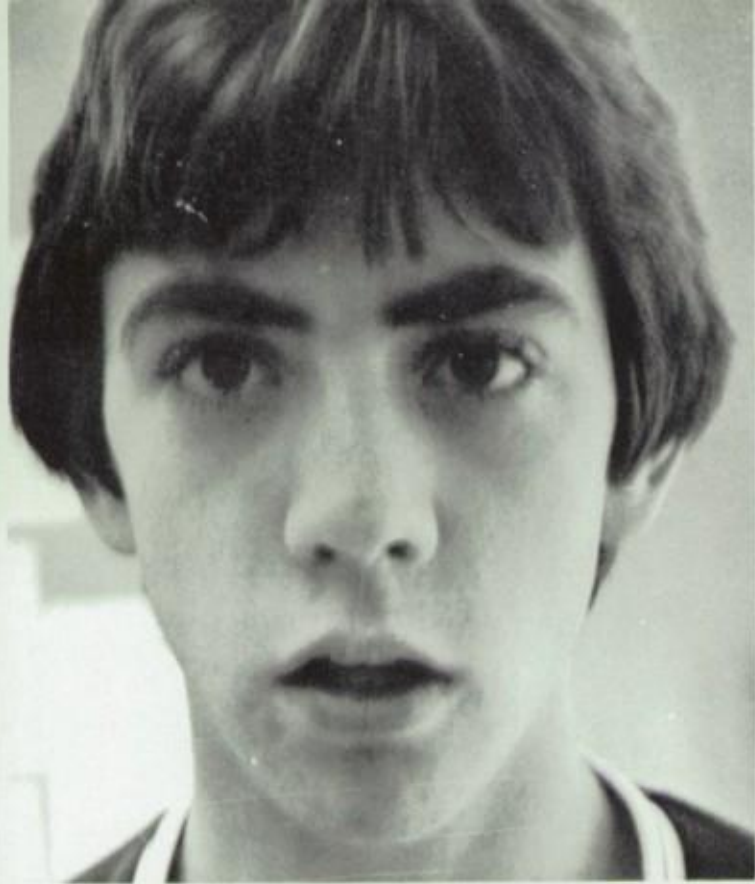

No Shelly, we aren't going to take another picture of you.

Will someone tell me a bedtime story?

Mrs. Leist, our 1985 Yearbook Advisor.

1985 YEARBOOK STAFF

Editor Lori Hemmelgarn showing her photography talent!

Well, we the editors hope that all who made through the entire book without falling asleep appreciated the hard work and effort we put into the book. We would like to thank our staff members, faculty, and the entire school body for your support and help. We hope next year's editors can keep their sanity, for we have none left!! A special thanks to Mrs. Leist, our "Yearbook Mom," who helped us meet our deadlines and "tried" to help us keep our sanity.

Marilyn Bender
Cindy Everman

Co-Editor Cindy Everman looking stunning on the job!

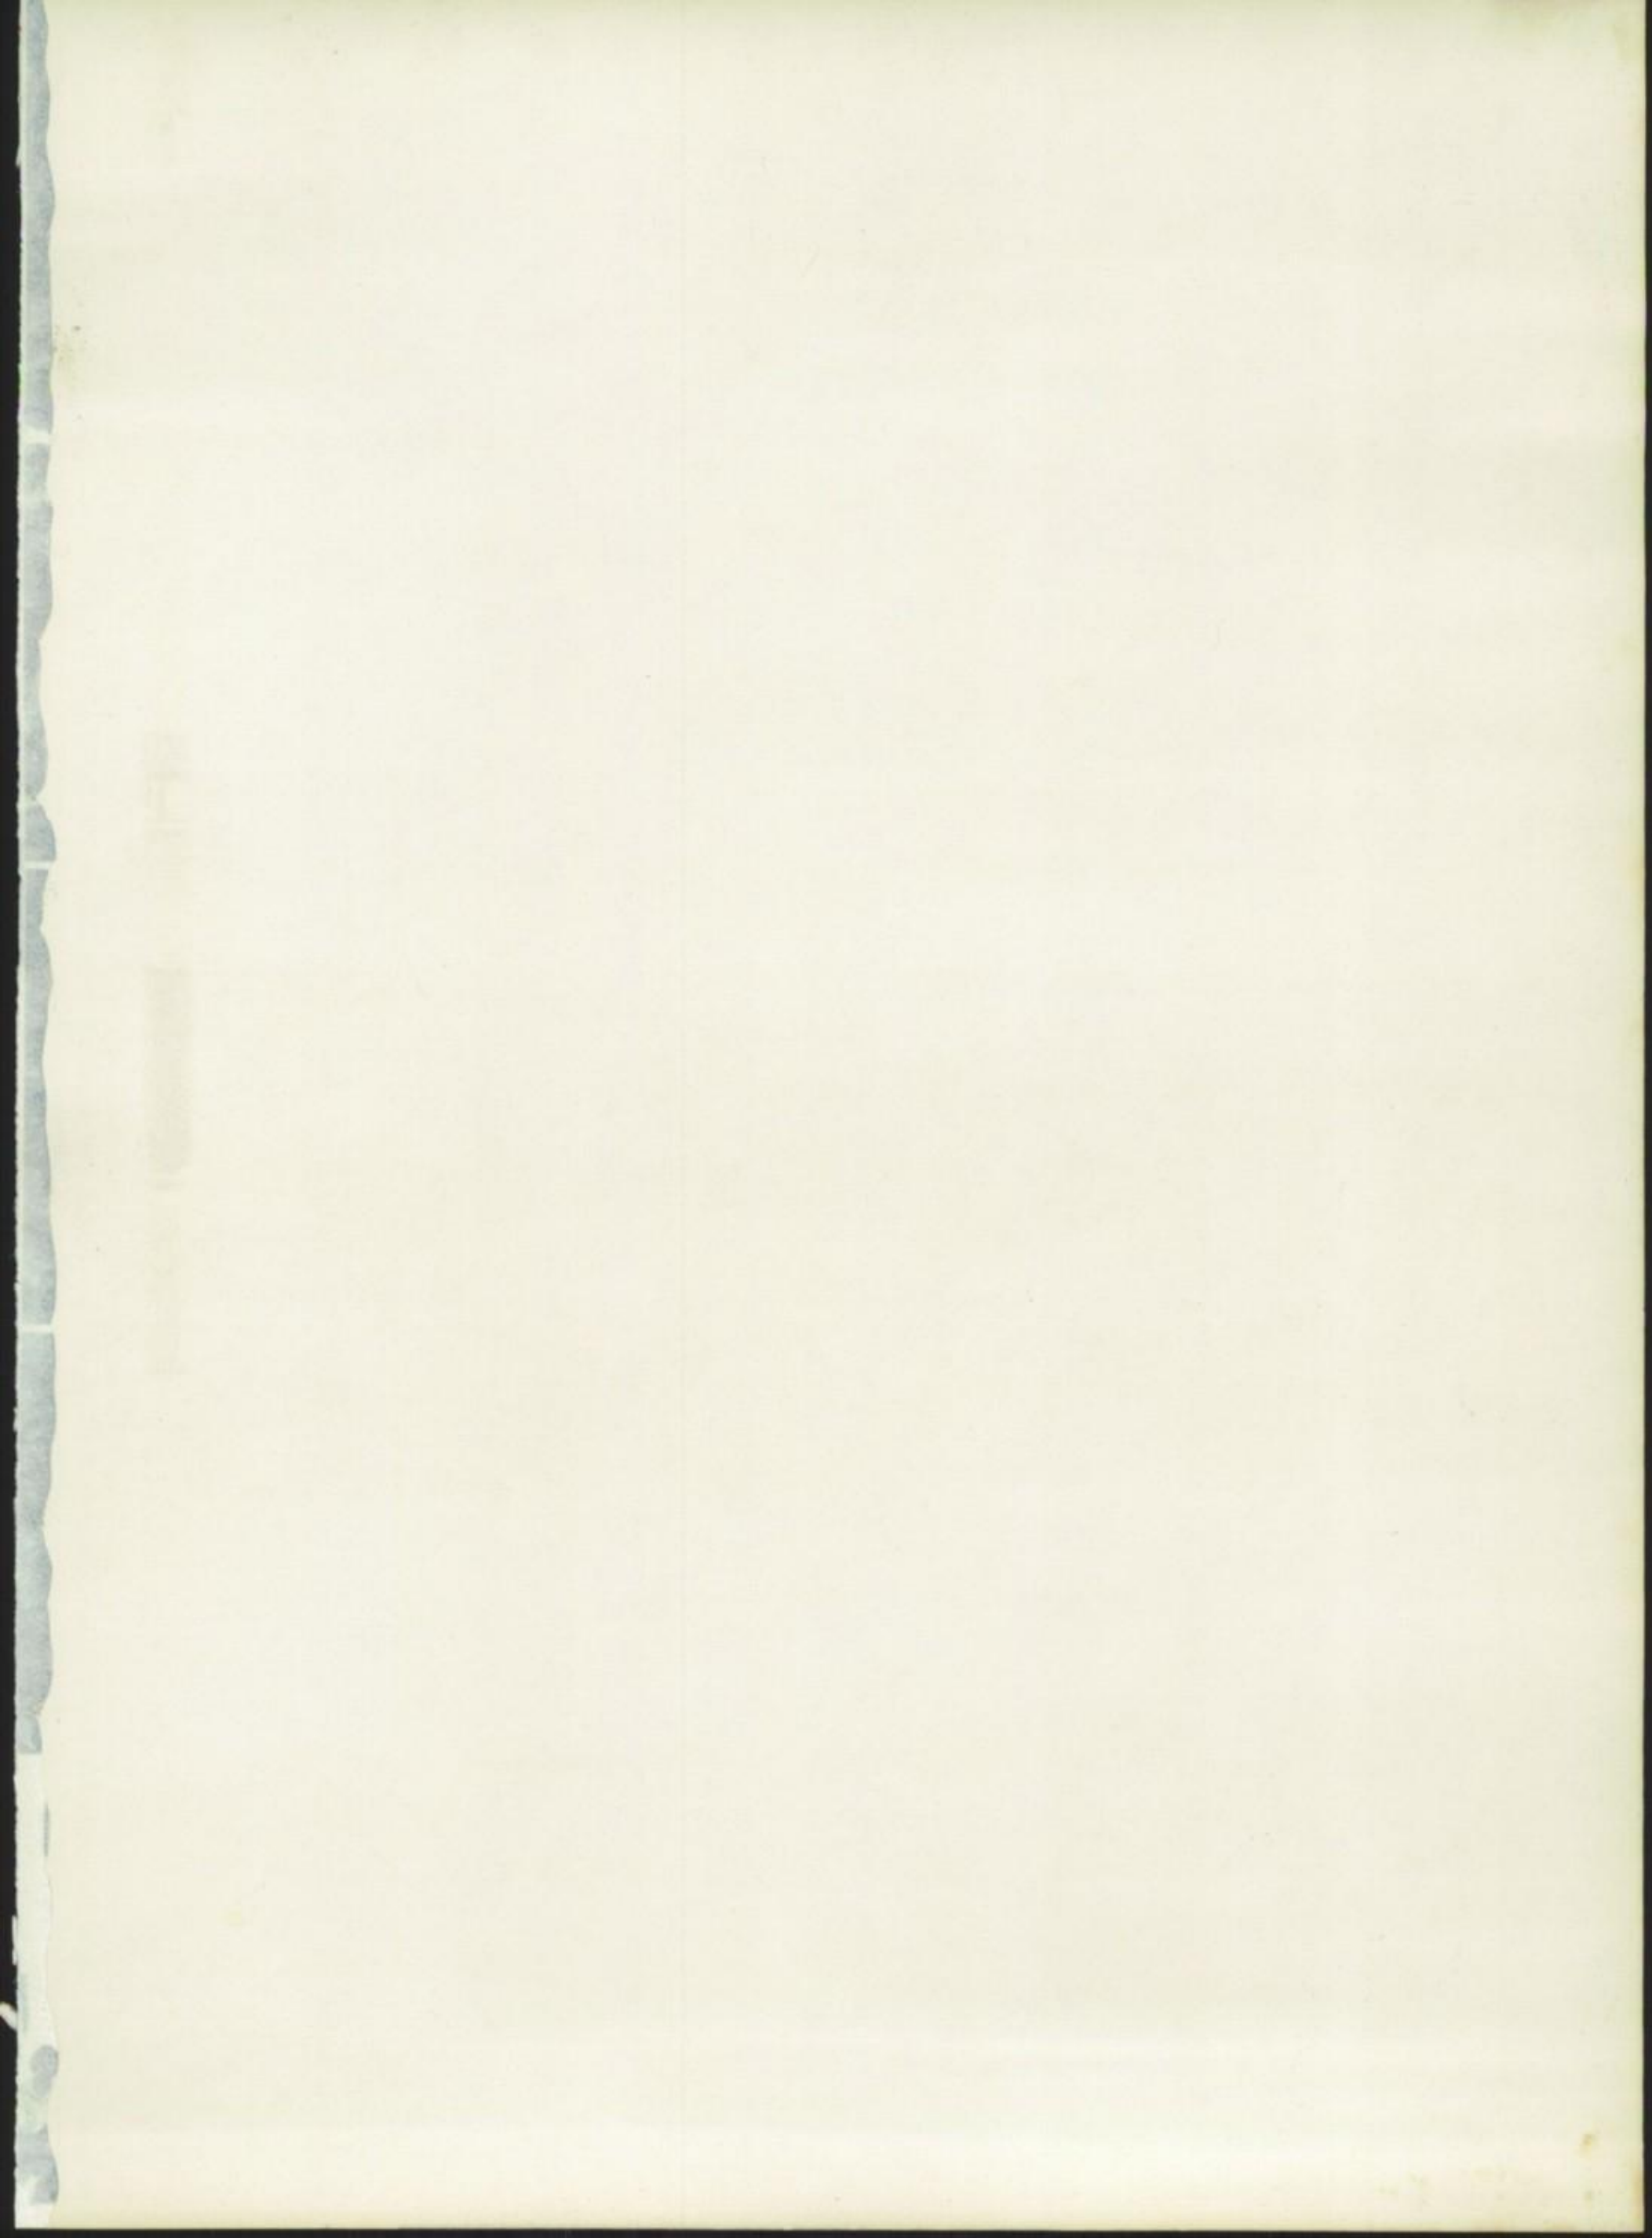

Co-Editor Marilyn Bender in a state of deep thought.

At last, the editors can show their sigh of relief!!!
